Kennywood Honors Hometown SUPER BOWL XL Champions Friday, September 1, 2006

West Mifflin, PA – As Kennywood amusement park nears the end of its regular season, it honors another Pittsburgh tradition just starting its season – the Pittsburgh Steelers! Kennywood, located in the heart of Steeler Country, invites all fans to join in the fun as the Fall Fantasy Parade takes on a “Black & Gold” theme on Friday, September 1, at 8 PM.

While Kennywood applauds all members of the Steeler SUPER BOWL XL Champions, it is especially proud of two local players – Mike Logan from McKeesport and Charlie Batch from Homestead. Not only do these players excite us with their talent on the field, they encourage us with their continuing contribution to disadvantaged youngsters in our area.

Kennywood encourages guests to wear their Black & Gold on Friday to honor these hometown heroes, Mike and Charlie, at the High Dive Stage at 7:30 PM (immediately following the All American High Dive Show). Immediately after the special “thank you” presentation, Mike and Charlie will participate in the 8 PM Black & Gold Parade throughout the park.

Kennywood opens at 5 PM August 28 to September 1, with the special NightRider Admission of only $14.95. Visit www.kennywood.com for a $5 OFF coupon, good through September 2. Regular hours (gates open 10:30 AM; rides at 11 AM) return Saturday, September 2 – 4, and continue September 9 – 10 and 16 – 17.

Phantom Fright Nights, Kennywood’s haunted alter-ego, takes place Friday and Saturday evenings, September 23, 29 & 30, and throughout October. See www.phantomfrightnights.com for further scary information.
