West Mifflin, PA – Race for the Cure participants head to Kennywood following the race on Sunday, May 14, to continue a very special Mother’s Day. Kennywood is proud to help sponsor the 14th annual Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Pittsburgh Race for the Cure and provide variety of special activities at the park, including a free lunch for race participants.

Free admission to the park for all Survivors wearing their pink race bibs is obtained simply by stopping at Kennywood’s Guest Relations. (Look for the Pink sign!) Discount admission coupons are available at the race for all other Race for the Cure participants and their family and friends.

In addition to Kennywood’s exciting rides, games, food, and entertainment, Survivors, family, and friends (including Kennywood Entertainment’s “Team Kennywood”) have lots of extra activities to enjoy.

- Photo opportunities with Kenny Kangaroo by the specially created Pink Fountain from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Kennywood’s Main Gate.
- Free lunch in Pavilion 5 for the first 1,500 race participants and guests from 12 Noon to 2:30 p.m. *Lunch and chance to win the arrow is offered to Survivors, checking in at Guest Relations, and participants redeeming their race coupon at the Main Gate.
- Drawing for a one-of-a kind Pink Kennywood Arrow at 2:30 p.m.

All Mother’s Day guests may enjoy the following special events!

- Live Music with Liz Calfo and Total Recall in Pavilion 5 – 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
- Live in-park broadcast by 3WS from 2:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Kennywood is open daily (except: closed Tuesday, May 16) through Labor Day.
Gates open at 10:30 a.m. and rides begin at 11:00 a.m.
